BEVERLY BARTLETT

Fabulous Hollywood, where a girl may be unknown yesterday, and tomorrow is fighting off the hordes of agents, producers, directors, publicity men, and all the rest of the glamour merry-go-round, who wish to harness themselves to a new star. One asks, "How does this all come about?" It is a subtle alchemy compounded of the right time, the right place, the right number on the roulette wheel of time. For Bevery Bartlett, It was the famous Sunset Strip Photographer, ALBERT DUVAL, whose pictures of her are featured in this issue. Beverly is slated for a screen test, and it won't be long before you will be seeing her on the silver and TV screens.

Beverly was reared in Texas, is twenty-one years old, and as anyone can plainly see, is a luscious blonde, with a real Texts drawl. Her hobbies are riding, swimming, dancing, and she is a fiend at chess. In other words, an allaround girl.

Remember what happened when other starlets reached the top? Few pictures were available, and these son became collectors items. So keep erly NOW, whilst they are available. Two simple slides in color are only $1.00, or a series of thirty different for $12.00. Black and white photos and movies are also available. Write Beverly Bartlett, 8911½ Sunset Blvd., Hollywood 46, California.

BEST FOOT FORWARD

BY ELMER A. BATTERS

We are happy to be able to offer our readers this unusual selection of the most beautiful girls ever to put their best foot forward in the star-studded city of Hollywood. Since words literally fail to describe the beauty that radiates from this group of beauties, we shall eliminate any further superfluous adjectives and allow our readers the opportunity to admire their tantalizing photographs which accentuate the physical attributes of true American beauties with their best foot forward in BLACK SILK STOCKINGS.

FALSE MODESTY

BY ELMER A. BATTERS

In this day and age there are still a number of people in the United States suffering under the delusion that sex is something of an evil nature that should be kept hidden from sight. With this sense of false modesty predominating in our society, is there any wonder why the mere suggestion of a body is far more exciting than revealing the entire figure to plain view? This foregoing conclusion is quite evident especially when an attractive girl fully attired in street clothes while adjusting her garter belt reveals an inch of bare flesh above the stocking line, the optical effect is quite gratifying. But yet this same girl while attired in a form-fitting bathing suit, which leaves very little to the imagination, the effect of bare flesh is not so gratifying as the sight of bare flesh being modestly revealed especially above a pair of BLACK SILK STOCKINGS

THERE ARE NO UGLY WOMEN

BY ELMER A. BATTERS

Way back in the 16th century, a very observant Frenchman by the name of Jean de LaBruyere made the following statement which was immediately endorsed by fifty million Frenchmen. "There are no ugly women; there are only women who do not know how to look pretty." Strange as it may seem today, several hundred years later, there are still women who do not know hw to look pretty. To look pretty, a woman doesn't have to be a raving beauty. There are many eye appealing tricks to the trade of making a woman look pretty, but since we can't elaborate on all of them, we will illustrate the one trick that is in accordance with our Editorial Policy, i.e., that part of a woman which is the epitome of femininity — her legs. To the connoisseur of feminine pulchritude a trim pair of legs has been and always will be the personification of feminine beauty, especially if they are encased in a sheer pair of BLACK SILK STOCKINGS.

THINKING PEOPLE

BY ELMER A. BATTERS

According to a leading advertising agency, thinking people are authorities in their field, especially if they have the ability to think for themselves, With so many thinking people thinking today, we decided to elucidate on the thoughts of a thinking girl. We think, seriously, that the thinking girl who thinks for herself knows the difference between the bare-legged look and the sheer look of legs radiating with sex appeal encased in a pair of BLACK SILK STOCKINGS. We also think that a thinking girl realizes that by wearing BLACK SILK STOCKINGS, she flatters her legs to such an extent that it gives a thinking man thoughts that are definitely worth thinking about! WE THINK???

BLACK SILK STOCKINGS AS A GIMMICK

BY ELMER A. BATTERS

The primary purpose of glamour photography is to compose a picture with impact which is capable of casting a spell of enticing charm. In creating this optical illusion, it is necessary for the photographer to accentuate that combination of physical attributes, i.e., the tace, arms, legs, and bust of an attractive girl which contributes to her complete physical beauty. In order to properly accentuate those physical attributes of a pretty girl, it is advisable to associate them with a gimmick. A gimmick, as Webster defines it, is a device by which a magician works a trick. During the past number of years, photographers, like magicians, have been working tricks through the use of gimmicks. Some of the most clever gimmicks we have become accustomed to enjoying, either in picture magazines, advertisements on billboards, or on calendars, are fireplaces, telephones, playing cards, and one of the most appealing and eye catching, i.e., an attractive girl putting on a pair of BLACK SILK STOCKINGS. By posing a girl either wearing or just putting on BLACK SILK STOCKINGS, there are many angles revealed in which her beauty can be delusively glorified. Comparatively speaking a clever gimmick like BLACK SILK STOCKINGS is to glamour photography is the proper scasoning is to a tossed salad—they both supply a special added zest to their respective subject matter. In glamour photography, BLACK SILK STOCKINGS is basically that factor which is capable of raising an average picture above the snapshet category into that type of picture which is able to entice additional glamour from a pretty girl who has been graciously endowed with a pair of beautiful legs.
